Lumino was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on March 19th, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2013 after Lumino absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Lumino qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for burglary falls under the guidelines for PRCS under the California penal code.
